The Louisiana Bar Foundation (LBF) is a non-profit 501 (c) (3) entity organized under the state of Louisiana.

We exist to preserve, honor and improve our system of justice by funding, developing and otherwise promoting efforts which enhance the legal profession, increase public understanding of the legal system, and advance the reality of equal justice under the law.

The LBF supports programs that provide free legal services for the poor in all 64 parishes of the state of Louisiana.

The LBF strives to present a complete and accurate list of donors. This publication reflects support from July 1, 2010 to June 30, 2011. If a mistake has been made in your listing, we sincerely apologize and ask that you contact Danielle J. Marshall at (504) 561-1046 or danielle@raisingthebar.org so that we may correct our records.

President’s Message

It is my pleasure to report to you on the activities of the LBF as we continue our work towards increasing access to justice and equal justice for all. In 2010, the LBF awarded more than $5 million in grants, distributed over an 18 month period, to more than 80 deserving non-profit organizations and public interest legal aid attorneys.

Although resources remain limited, we continue our work in the Child in Need of Care (CINC) Program providing legal representation to children in foster care in partnership with the legal service corporations, the Louisiana Department of Child and Family Services and the Louisiana Supreme Court. As administrator, the LBF provides governance and oversight of the funds and ensures program and financial compliance. While the state budget endured numerous cuts across the board, we were able to maintain funding levels for the upcoming fiscal year.

At its meeting in January, the Board made the decision to maintain funding levels in all grant categories for this year and will rely on its reserve to meet those obligations. We believe this action was necessary given the pending cuts at the federal level, little to no funding provided by the State of Louisiana and the continued increase in those needing and eligible for legal aid in this state. Legal aid personnel continue to serve the poor in their communities and reflect the best image of our profession. They help families facing foreclosure, bankruptcy, women and children in need, and many other matters. It is because of their hard work that serving as the president of the LBF was so rewarding. I truly admire the work done by so many throughout this state and enjoyed the opportunity to meet many of these heroes and others dedicated to service through non-profit work. They are the true heroes of our legal profession—working long hours for far too little pay.

Again this year, we were able to make great strides in law-related education initiatives. In September, we celebrated the completion and opening of the Foundation’s second Courtroom at Lake Charles Boston Academy. This Courtroom and LRE curriculum serves five surrounding parishes of the Lake Charles area. It is fully functioning and is fitted with judge, jury and advocate seating. This program fosters interest and participation in the legal profession by high school students in that area and provides a better understanding of the justice system. In January, the Board of Directors approved the Northeast panel’s recommendation to award funds to West Monroe High School for a similar project serving a multi-parish area in the northeast region of the state.

The Building Capital Development grants program has continued to grow as well. We are providing an average of eight grants per year to grantees for renovations and the acquisition of office space. A few noteworthy projects from this year include the support to Acadiana Legal Services Corporation for the purchase of a building in Alexandria and support of the new Shreveport Bar Foundation building project based on the Lafayette model. These building projects establish a home for legal services within their communities and become a hub of synergy amongst bar members, judiciary, legal aid clients as well as other providers in the area.

In Partnership with Louisiana Appleseed, the LBF Class of 2010 project launched in January will focus on educating the public on heirship property and title clearing. The Class project is now in its third year and provides an opportunity for our newest Fellows to carry out the LBF mission through volunteer service. Past projects focused on Equitable Funding for Special Need Children and Teen Domestic Violence.

This year, the LBF now has nine Community Partnership Panels. Our newest addition is the Bayou Region operating in the southeast coastal parishes of Terrebonne, Lafourche and St. Mary. A vision of the late, former LBF President Jock Scott, these panels have become the lifeblood of this organization. They provide a local presence led by local Fellows and work to identify new members, provide nominations for the LBF Board, future nominations for the distinguished awards and direct discretionary funds through a flexible grants process to meet local needs. In May, each panel hosts an annual fellows event. This is the fourth year of local CPP events throughout the state.

In closing, the accomplishments of this past year could not be possible without the work of so many. I received counsel from every officer and the support of the Board throughout the year on every challenge, decision and opportunity facing the LBF. I am thankful to all of you and hope to continue to work with you on our important mission. I was honored to serve as your President.

The LBF established the Children’s Legal Services Fund to provide special grants to non-profit organizations giving children access to special education and health care services, mental health and foster care services. Additionally, the fund provides support for advocacy in administrative and legal proceedings and impacts litigation and systemic legal reform on behalf of children. Donations to the fund help to provide assistance to mentally and physically disabled children, children in the foster care system, children in the juvenile justice system and children who are not receiving access to educational services required by law.

Fellows enjoying the gala.
The LBF launched the inaugural Annual Assembly at the Ritz Carlton New Orleans in April. The two day event featured the Grants Committee meeting, Annual Fellows Membership meeting, Board of Directors meeting, Distinguished Honoree Luncheon, Patron Party and culminated with the 25th Anniversary Fellows Gala. The Gala was held in honor of the Distinguished Jurist, Fredericka H. Wicker; Distinguished Attorney, Phillip A. Wittmann; Distinguished Professor, Russell L. Jones and the Calogero Justice Award Recipient, Louisiana Appleseed. The black tie celebration included dinner, music, and a live auction. The LBF 2011-12 officers were also installed.

President’s Award

During the Friday morning Annual Fellows Membership meeting, Leo C. Hamilton, a partner of Breazeale, Sachse & Wilson LLP in Baton Rouge, received the prestigious LBF President’s Award. Hamilton was selected by Herschel E. Richard, 2010-11 LBF President in recognition of his outstanding support, volunteer service and dedication to the mission and goals of the LBF. This past year, Hamilton served as Secretary and as the board liaison and chair of the Editorial committee. Hamilton practices in the areas of labor and employment law, administrative law, constitutional law, and governmental relations. He received his BA from LSU and his JD from LSU Paul M. Hebert Law Center.

Calogero Justice Award

At the Distinguished Honoree Luncheon, the Calogero Justice Award was given to Louisiana Appleseed. The Calogero Justice Award honors an organization for a significant contribution to the Louisiana justice system. Louisiana Appleseed uncovers and corrects injustices and barriers to opportunity through legal, legislative and market-based structural reform. Working with a pro bono network, they identify, research, and analyze social injustices; make specific recommendations; and advocate for effective solutions to deep-seated structural problems.

Horn Blower Award

Prior to the gala, the Office of the Judicial Administrator was presented the LBF Horn Blower Award. The award was given in recognition of outstanding support and leadership in implementing the Child Advocacy Program for the State of Louisiana. This award is given to a partner organization in recognition of outstanding support and leadership in assisting the LBF in advancing an initiative, project, or program. Judicial Administrator Timothy E. Averill accepted the award on behalf of his office.
Fellows Enjoying the Annual Assembly
The 25th Anniversary Fellows Gala was held Friday, April 8, 2011 at the Ritz-Carlton New Orleans, 921 Canal Street. The black tie event was celebration of the LBF’s 25 years of advancing justice and law-related education in Louisiana. The dinner was in honor of Distinguished Jurist, Fredericka H. Wicker, Distinguished Attorney, Phillip A. Wittmann and Distinguished Professor, Russell L. Jones. The gala began at 7 p.m. and featured a live auction, dinner, music and dancing. A patron party was held prior to the gala.

2010 Distinguished Jurist, Fredericka H. Wicker

Judge Fredericka H. Wicker is a 1977 alum of Tulane Law School. After practicing law for 20 years as a state and federal prosecutor and a civil litigator, she joined the 24th Judicial District Court in 1997. There Wicker was a member of the court’s management team and the Drug Court administrator. She was also the president of the Louisiana District Judges Association.

2010 Distinguished Attorney, Phillip A. Wittmann

Phillip A. Wittmann is a partner at the law firm of Stone Pigman Walther Wittmann L.L.C. He concentrates his practice in commercial litigation, class actions, toxic tort and products liability matters. He has extensive trial experience and maintains an active litigation practice.

2010 Distinguished Professor, Russell L. Jones

Russell L. Jones, the Jesse N. Stone Endowed Professor, was named SULC vice chancellor of academic affairs in January 2007. The 1982 cum laude graduate of the Southern University Law Center and former articles editor of the Southern University Law Review joined the SULC faculty in 1984.

(Monroe)
Sara’s Story

In a perfect world, children live in safe, nurturing environments. But our world is not perfect. It is a harsh reality that child abuse occurs all too frequently. According to national statistics, one out of four girls and one out of six boys will be sexually abused as a child. Too often these young victims are further traumatized by the very system designed to help them. The Louisiana Bar Foundation (LBF) supports programs that work to help child victims and their families begin to heal, while preventing further victimization. The LBF grantee, the Baton Rouge Children’s Advocacy Center’s (BRCAC) mission is to lessen the trauma experienced by child victims when abuse allegations are investigated, and to provide support during any subsequent proceedings within the criminal justice system.

Sara, a BRCAC client, was just five when she was sexually abused by a male family member. She felt guilt and shame and she believed that what had happened to her was her fault. At 15 her mother said she was exhibiting behavior that was taking her down a destructive path and she feared for Sara’s safety. Sara was regularly running away from home, was sexually active, and had a terrible relationship with her mother. “When Sara and her mother came through the doors at the BRCAC for the first time, I thought, this was not going to be easy. I could just see the anger on both of their faces,” said LaTonia Dunbar, BRCAC Family Advocate.

After several counseling sessions with LaTonia, Sara began to realize that her life was headed down a dangerous road and that her destructive actions were directly related to the sexual abuse she endured as a child. The healing process began and although Sara had a long road ahead of her, she was willing to work through her issues and realized that it wasn’t her fault. She had some obstacles along the way including older members of her family who discouraged her. They called her a drama queen and diminished her abuse. After meeting with BRCAC, these same family members realized the seriousness of the situation and then gave Sara the support she needed to move forward.

Today Sara is a much happier 16-year-old with plans for a bright future possibly in the medical field. “The last time Sara and her mother were in my office they were laughing and talking together like a family should,” said LaTonia.

”Now that Sara has the confidence and family support she was lacking, we will be taking her abuser to court to get the justice she deserves. We will be by her side throughout the entire process to lessen the trauma Sara may experience when the abuse allegations are investigated. We will provide support during any subsequent proceedings within the criminal justice system,” said LaTonia.

In 2009, more than 37,000 child abuse cases were reported and 40 Louisiana children died as a result of abuse or neglect in Louisiana. This year the LBF granted more than $1.8 million to children’s legal services programs to help provide legal assistance to needy children in areas of law which affect their safety, well-being, and future development. For a complete list of programs go to www.raisingthebar.org.

The Access to Justice Program is a cooperative venture of the Louisiana Bar Foundation, the Louisiana State Bar Association and the Louisiana legal services programs to support and strengthen an integrated statewide network to increase the delivery of legal services to the poor.

The Child in Need of Care (CINC) program provides free legal representation to Louisiana children in foster care in partnership with the Louisiana legal service corporations, the Louisiana Department of Child and Family Services and the Louisiana Supreme Court. As administrator, the LBF provides governance and oversight of the funds and ensures program and financial compliance.

Equal Justice Works AmeriCorps Legal Fellows assist underserved clients in coordination with law student and attorney volunteers. They collaborate with community legal aid providers, colleagues and law schools to ensure quality pro bono opportunities.

The Fellows Class Project is an opportunity to perform pro bono service in an alternative way while working with colleagues who joined LBF during the calendar year.

Interest on Lawyer Trust Accounts (IOLTA) is a unique partnership between the banking and legal communities that enhances the LBF’s ability to meet the growing need for free civil legal services to the poor.

(as of June 2011)
The past four years have been a blessing, largely because of the generous financial support of the Kids’ Chance Scholarship. I can never express how grateful I am for the financial assistance that has made it possible for me to obtain an undergraduate degree in nursing. Without your help and the help of other scholarships, my experience in college would have been a much more stressful endeavor. With my degree in nursing, I plan helping those who cannot help themselves; just like sometimes in life, we cannot control our situations.

This scholarship opportunity has had a positive and direct effect on my future, as well as my future patients due to your willingness to contribute to my quality education. No dollar amount could ever compare to the priceless gift you have given me and other scholarship recipients. Without you many would go without a quality college education.

Thank you very much for your willingness to support the future of Louisiana. From the committee members to the donors and to everyone who makes this scholarship possible. THANK YOU. Continue to provide others with opportunities and know that if you have the opportunity to touch one person’s life, take advantage of the opportunity because you may never know how your life may be touched one day.

Sincerely,
J. Powers-Trombatore
Four-Year Scholarship Recipient
2006-10

Golf Tournament Benefits LBF Kids’ Chance Program

The Louisiana Workers’ Compensation Corporation (LWCC) held its annual golf tournament in September 2010 donating all proceeds to the Louisiana Bar Foundation (LBF) Kids’ Chance Scholarship Program.

At a ceremony prior to the golf tournament, LBF Kid’s Chance Co-chairs presented mock checks to scholarship recipients and a certificate of appreciation to Tensey Pricer, Communications Specialist and tournament coordinator at LWCC.

The LBF Kids’ Chance Program has been the recipient of the LWCC golf tournament proceeds for the last seven years. All money raised goes to the scholarship fund.

The Law Signature School Project provides funds for building a courtroom within schools that have been designated as “Law Signature Schools” by the Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education. Law Signature Schools have a core, law-related education curriculum available to high school students. This project builds upon the law signature school program by collaborating with partners to create a courtroom environment for students. The LBF project goal is to foster interest and participation in the legal profession and to provide a better understanding of the justice system. Regardless of ultimate career choices, students will profit from having a greater understanding of the law and the political process.

The courtroom is fully functioning, fitted with judge, jury, and advocate seating. It is the ideal setting for mock trial competitions, speaker functions, and future court proceedings.

Lake Charles-Boston Academy of Learning and Northside High School in Lafayette are participants in the program.
Fellows Class Project

In partnership with Louisiana Appleseed, the Fellows Class Project Series is a way for new Fellows to become involved and be a part of the LBF mission.

The Fellows Class of 2010 focused on preserving homeownership through community outreach. The class attended community events and talked to homeowners about the importance of obtaining clear title to their property. Attendees were given a copy of Appleseed’s Protect Your Property: Heir Property in Louisiana, a homeowners guide to building wealth and protecting assets.

"Becoming a LBF Fellow and a member of the Class Project Series was a great opportunity for me to volunteer in a unique and rewarding way."

Hon. Marie A. Bookman (ret.)

“I thoroughly enjoyed helping educate our community about the importance of clear title and the resources available to them in our legal community.”

Patricia A. Garcia

Law Student Pro Bono Awards

The Louisiana State Bar Association’s Annual Law Student Pro Bono Award recognizes law students from American Bar Association accredited law schools in Louisiana for demonstrating a dedication to providing legal services to the poor. One award may be given to each of the four Louisiana Law Schools. Students must be in good academic standing and have fulfilled their law school’s requirements regarding public interest involvement. In acknowledgement of student efforts, the Louisiana Bar Foundation provides a monetary award to law student award recipients.

2010 Awards:

- Nancy Lynn Austin, The Paul M. Hebert Law Center
- Nikki Thanos, Loyola University New Orleans College of Law
- Ebony Williams, Southern University Law Center
- Homero Lopez, Jr., Tulane University Law School

Please Support the Louisiana Bar Foundation

We invite everyone to make a donation to the Louisiana Bar Foundation. A gift demonstrates belief in our mission to preserve, honor and improve our system of justice. Your generosity will also help strengthen the programs we support and the services we provide.

Annual support provides a dependable source of unrestricted gifts that may be applied to the areas of greatest need. There are a variety of ways for Fellows to make an annual donation:

- Annual Support Statement - Mailed to all Fellows on their anniversary date
- Spring and Fall Annual Drive - Mailed in the Spring and Fall to Fellows
- Summer Newsletter - The summer newsletter and donation envelope are mailed to Fellows in June
- Year End Gift - The winter newsletter includes an opportunity to make the LBF a priority among the organizations supported at year end

Other ways to make a donation to the Louisiana Bar Foundation:

- Become a Fellow - Louisiana Bar Foundation membership is a statement of commitment to fairness and equal access for all to the justice system.
- Memorial and Tribute gifts - Make a donation in honor of or in memory of a loved one, friend or colleague
- Corporations and Foundations - Join the growing list of Louisiana corporations and foundations who support the LBF
